WHAT IS A MUTUAL CONSENT DIVORCE?

Effective October 1st, 2015, mutual consent is a “no fault” ground for absolute divorce. If all the requirements have been met, a court may grant an absolute divorce without a separation. See MD Code, Family Law §7-103 (see back page).

REQUIREMENTS

All these requirements must be met, per the MD Code:

- No minor children
The parties have no minor children in common.
- Signed settlement agreement
The parties have a signed settlement agreement that resolves all issues relating to alimony and the distribution of property.
- Neither party has asked to set aside the agreement
- Both parties attend the divorce hearing

Filing fee for the original complaint is $165, cash or check only.
